Your rights may be affected. You should read the motion or application and the accompanying papers carefully and discuss them with your attorney if you have one in this bankruptcy case or proceeding. (If you do not have an attorney, you may wish to consult one.)
If you do not want the court to approve the proposed treatment of your claim, or if you want the court to consider your views on the motion, then you or your attorney must file an Objection to Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan not later than 7 days before the confirmation hearing date, or 21 days after the filing of this motion, whichever is later. If you or your attorney do not file a timely objection, the court may decide that you do not oppose the relief sought in the motion and may enter an order granting the relief requested by the Debtor(s). The determination made in such an order will supersede any security interest stated in a proof of claim that you have filed or will file.
